JUNE 24

Pastor Craig D. Houston

Welcome

This Lord's Day we have the distinct privilege of ordaining two faithful men of God for the work of the ministry. We have assembled an esteemed Presbytery of faithful ministers of the Gospel to examine the candidates for ordination and make recommendation to the church. Upon affirmation of the council, and my recommendation as Pastor of Westside Baptist Church, the congregation will publicly affirm that we proceed with the ordination. Peter J. Montoro IV will be ordained as an Elder, called to preach the gospel as a Minister of the Word. R. John Moss will be ordained as an Elder to serve the church. Please pray for these men as they are set apart for this noble work and high call of serving Christ's church.

Born in Cleveland, Ohio, he was raised in a Pastor's home in New York City, and was converted at the age of eleven. Currently pursuing a research MA through the University of Birmingham, he is a 2018 graduate of the University of London (BD), and a 2011 graduate of Heartland Baptist Bible College (BA). He married his wife, Ashley, in 2012 and they have two children, Peter and Chloe. Peter's desire is to discover, love, and apply truth and to equip others to do the same. Besides spending time with his family, he enjoys reading, cooking, and working out.

Evening Ordination Service 6 p.m.

Hors d'oeuvre and dessert fellowship following

"Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity. Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine. Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery. Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear to all. Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee."

TOGETHER IN SCRIPTURE

John Chapter 21

Context: Setting the Table

In the first chapter of his Gospel, John introduced those who would serve as witnesses to Jesus. Chapters two through twelve describe the public ministry of Jesus, including his first six signs and the increasing opposition these signs led to. Chapters thirteen through seventeen record Jesus's ministry to his disciples as he prepared them for his departure. Chapters eighteen through twenty contain John's account of Jesus's death-and-resurrection—his seventh and final sign. Connecting back to the beginning of the book, this final chapter focuses on the continuing testimony of those who witnessed the seven signs described in this Gospel.

Content: Hearing the Text

Read John 21 together out loud.

Credo: Believing the Truth

The signs were complete. Jesus had proven himself to be the Christ, the very Son of God, the only way to the Father, and the only hope of eternal life. As he concluded his Gospel, John focused once more on the disciples who had witnessed these signs. They needed to be reminded that the command to follow, given at the beginning of the Gospel, still applied at the end. Despite their past failures, they remained the witnesses that God had chosen and their testimony remained vital. Their faithful testimony, preserved for us in Scripture, continues to guarantee the good news that is our only hope. May our witness reflect the faithfulness of theirs!

Conduct: Reshaping Our Walk

Discuss the meaning of the text and then walk through the following application questions as you discuss the difference this meaning ought to make in our lives today.

Peter had failed, miserably and completely. Yet Jesus wasn't finished with him—not by a long shot. Though his restoration was painful, it was fully successful. How have you been tempted to prematurely conclude that you no longer had any value to Jesus?

What are some ways in which we can allow curiosity about God's plans for our fellow disciples distract us from obediently following Jesus in our own lives?

Book of the Month

The Prophetic Books of the Bible are full of symbolic speeches, dramatic metaphors, and lengthy allegories — a unique blend of literary styles that can make them hard to comprehend. How can we know if we are reading them the way God intended them to be read? In How to Read and Understand the Biblical Prophets, leading Old Testament scholar Peter Gentry identifies seven common characteristics of prophetic literature in the Bible that help us understand each book's message.
