Bible Direction for Life

WELCOME TO WESTSIDE

Westside Baptist Church is a place where everyday people, just like yourself, can experience God's love in a real and personal way. We are founded on the Bible and committed to sharing the timeless truths contained in its pages. Through straight-forward preaching from God's Word, reverent worship, and fervent prayer, lives are impacted and inspired for spiritual growth every week here at Westside.

Pastor Craig Houston

We hope you feel at home. Whatever your ethnic or cultural background, whether you are single or married, young or just young at heart, we would love to learn more about you and help you find your joy and satisfaction in Jesus Christ.

If you are looking for a gospel-centered church on the Kitsap Peninsula, or if we could serve you in any way, please let us know.

Grace and Peace,

TOGETHER IN SCRIPTURE

Genesis Week Two – 1:1–2:3

Context: Setting the Table

As we discussed last week, the book of Genesis is organized under ten headings, each dealing with a particular group of “generations.” These first verses stand outside of that structure, serving as an introduction, or prologue, to all that is to follow—the rest of Genesis, the remaining four books of the Pentateuch, and the Scriptures as a whole.

Content: Hearing the Text

Read Genesis 1:1–2:3 together out loud.

Credo: Believing the Truth

In the beginning, there were no planets or stars or people. There was no matter, no time, and no space. There was nothing and there was no one except God—until God began to speak. With ten speeches in six days, he created absolutely everything that is. He created stars and planets and rocks and water. He created birds and beasts and whales and trees. He created humanity, male and female, in his likeness and gave them the responsibility to image his rule over the very good world which he had made. Despite mankind’s rebellion, the purposes God had for his creation in the beginning, described here in Genesis 1, are the very same purposes we find him fulfilling at the end, described in Revelation 21–22. When the work of redemption has undone the results of rebellion, the heavens and the earth will be made new and all things will once again be very good.

Conduct: Reshaping Our Walk

Moses made it clear that God created and controls all that is, including those forces that the ancient world often thought he didn’t. What are some of the forces in our own culture we might be tempted to think of as independent of God’s control?

Examples: Unpredictable diseases, terrorist attacks, natural disasters, etc.

The unique value of each human being is founded on the reality that every human being bears the image of God. How might we be tempted to use other and lesser criteria to determine our own or other’s value?

Examples: Valuing others based on how attractive or useful they are to us, showing favoritism to those who “have it together,” thinking we are worthless because age or disability keeps us from doing what we once did.

Book of the Month

J. I. Packer's Knowing God has become a classic of the Christian faith. It helps draw us closer in our relationship with God. It brings together two important facets of the Christian faith — knowing about God and also knowing God through the context of a close relationship with the person of Jesus Christ. Written in an engaging and practical tone, this thought-provoking work seeks to transform and enrich the Christian understanding of God, explaining both who God is and how we can relate to him.
