Bible Direction for Life

WELCOME TO WESTSIDE

Westside Baptist Church is a place where everyday people, just like yourself, can experience God's love in a real and personal way. We are founded on the Bible and committed to sharing the timeless truths contained in its pages. Through straight-forward preaching from God's Word, reverent worship, and fervent prayer, lives are impacted and inspired for spiritual growth every week here at Westside.

Pastor Craig Houston

We hope you feel at home. Whatever your ethnic or cultural background, whether you are single or married, young or just young at heart, we would love to learn more about you and help you find your joy and satisfaction in Jesus Christ.

If you are looking for a gospel-centered church on the Kitsap Peninsula, or if we could serve you in any way, please let us know.

Grace and Peace,

TOGETHER IN SCRIPTURE

Genesis Week Six – 5:1–6:8

Context: Setting the Table

After a magnificent introduction (1:1–2:3), the first of the ten sections of Genesis, the “history of the heavens and the earth,” (2:4–4:26), relates God’s abundant provision for his image bearers (2:4–2:25), their initial rebellion (3:1–3:24), and the continued outworking of this rebellion in the life of Cain and his descendants. This second section, the “book of the generations of Adam,” tells the story of Seth and his descendants and lays the foundation for the account of Noah and the flood that follows.

Content: Hearing the Text

Read Genesis 5:1–6:8 together out loud.

Credo: Believing the Truth

The “family history of Adam” functions as a transition section between the story of creation and rebellion and the story of humanity’s new beginning after the great flood. Though the line of Seth had gotten off to a good start (4:26), it soon became so involved in the increasing corruption of humanity that men like Enoch stood out as exceptions. Yet though God was deeply grieved by the destructive boundary crossing of his image bearers, he did not forget his promised plan of redemption. In the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, Noah nevertheless found grace, God’s unmerited favor, in the eyes of the LORD.

Conduct: Reshaping Our Walk

Discuss the meaning of the text and then walk through the following application questions as you discuss the difference this meaning ought to make in our lives today.

Could it truly be said of your daily life that you, like Enoch, “walk with God?” If not, why not?

While the crossing of boundaries often seems at the time to be exciting, even thrilling, the final result is always destructive. What are some of the boundaries, large and small, we are tempted to ignore in our own lives?

EXAMPLES: Traffic laws; Entertainment choices; Relationship standards, etc.

Book of the Month

J. I. Packer's Knowing God has become a classic of the Christian faith. It helps draw us closer in our relationship with God. It brings together two important facets of the Christian faith — knowing about God and also knowing God through the context of a close relationship with the person of Jesus Christ. Written in an engaging and practical tone, this thought-provoking work seeks to transform and enrich the Christian understanding of God, explaining both who God is and how we can relate to him.

Available in the Westside Bookstore
