Bible Direction for Life

WELCOME TO WESTSIDE

Westside Baptist Church is a place where everyday people, just like yourself, can experience God's love in a real and personal way. We are founded on the Bible and committed to sharing the timeless truths contained in its pages. Through straight-forward preaching from God's Word, reverent worship, and fervent prayer, lives are impacted and inspired for spiritual growth every week here at Westside.

Pastor Craig Houston

We hope you feel at home. Whatever your ethnic or cultural background, whether you are single or married, young or just young at heart, we would love to learn more about you and help you find your joy and satisfaction in Jesus Christ.

If you are looking for a gospel-centered church on the Kitsap Peninsula, or if we could serve you in any way, please let us know.

Grace and Peace,

TOGETHER IN SCRIPTURE

Genesis 8

Context: Setting the Table

After a creational prologue, the “history of the heavens and the earth” (2:4–4:26) relates God’s abundant provision for his image bearers, their initial rebellion, and increasing wickedness of the line of Cain. The second section, the “book of the generations of Adam,” (5:1–6:8) focuses on the line of Seth and its eventual corruption. Chapter 8 continues the third section, “the family history of Noah” (6:9–9:29), with an account of God’s gracious deliverance of Noah and his family from the waters of the flood.

Content: Hearing the Text

Read Genesis 8 together out loud.

Credo: Believing the Truth

The ark continued to float aimlessly on the waters as Noah and his sons put in another long day of caring for their floating zoo. No one on the ark knew for sure what would happen next. No one knew when their endless meandering over the face of the waters would come to an end, if ever. Yet God knew. Long before the ark ceased to wander over the flood, God had already sent the wind that would dry the earth, re-establishing the division between the earth and the sea and renewing the work of the third day of creation. When the time was right, neither a day too soon nor a day too late, God would speak again. Noah and his collection of living things would leave the ark and once more walk on dry ground.

Conduct: Reshaping Our Walk

God sent the wind that would bring deliverance to Noah and his family long before they felt the ark scrape against the mountains of Ararat. How are we tempted to allow our ignorance of God’s plans to fool us into acting as though he has forgotten our needs?

Examples: Prolonged medical conditions, relational conflict that has no obvious solution, etc.

In what ways are we tempted to act as though God’s gracious action on our behalf is a result of the “religious rituals” that we perform?

Examples: Thinking we can guarantee particular financial or relational blessings by following a list of “rules” that we or our friends have come up with, assuming that the difficulties that others face are a result of their non-performance of these “rules.”

Book of the Month

Early in the sixteenth century, legislative decree in England controlled people's access to Scripture and prohibited an English Bible. But theologian and linguist William Tyndale was determined to provide his fellow countrymen with Scripture they could read. In The Daring Mission of William Tyndale, Dr. Steven J. Lawson traces this daring mission, which was ultimately used by God to ignite the English Reformation yet would cost Tyndale his life.
